Numb. 8098.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 2. to Saturday March 6. 1741.

Vienna, February 24.

ON the 21st Instant the Queen our Sovereign, with the Great Duke her Consort, assisted at the publick Prayers in the Metropolitan Church of this City, for the Success of her Majesty's Arms. At Noon the six remaining Companies of Esterhasi's new Regiment arrived here, and having entred the City with the Prince their Colonel at their Head, they passed under the Windows of the Palace, from whence her Majesty was pleased to review them; they then marched through the City to the Suburb called Leopolstadt, from whence they will proceed by the great Bridge over the Danube towards Entzerstorf and the neighbouring Places, where they are to remain till farther Orders.

Manheim, Feb. 4. The Count de Montijo, Ambassadour from the King of Spain, arrived here a Day or two ago, in order to take Leave of this Court.

Ratisbon, Feb. 28, N. S. Two Pieces have been lately published here; the first importing, that the Bishop of Eychstadt, assuring himself that it is not the Intention of the Queen of Hungary to make him or his Diocese feel the Effects of the present Conjuncture, he not having given any Occasion for it, nor to do him any Damage; and that he had that Confidence in the Equity of Feldt Marshal Count Khevenhuller, that he would be disposed not only to give Orders to the Troops under his Command, to respect, in their Incursions, the Territory of that Diocese, belonging to the Circle of Franconia, but also to grant forthwith a Safeguard to the Goods and Estates of the Diocese situated in the Territory of Bavaria, within a League of the River Altmuhl, to secure them from the Contributions and Inroads of Parties, &c. The second Piece is a Decree or Rescript of the Regency of Neubourg, importing, that the Privy Council of his most Serene Highness the Elector Palatine, having applied to his said Highness to know how they should govern themselves in the present Circumstances, wherein it appears some military Invasion is to be feared, and his Highness having graciously answered on the 1st Instant, That not being engaged in War with the Court of Vienna, it is not to be presumed the said Court would, on her Part, undertake any Thing contrary to the Tranquility, against the Territories of Neubourg, it was thought proper to signify the same to Baron Francis Anthony de Weldenau, Chambellan and Counsellor to his most Serene Electoral Highness, and his Provincial Judge at Burglengenfeld, that in Case of such Hostilities, he may make a suitable Report of it, and give immediate Notice by Circular Letters, to the Inhabitants of that District for their Conduct. Consequently if any such Thing should happen, the said Baron de Weldenau will not lose one Moment to give an Account thereof, by Express. Neubourg the 7th of February 1742. Sign'd, John Adam Kichler, Secretary to the Privy Council.

Brussels, March 7. It is assured that Prince Charles of Lorraine will shortly be here, in order to represent the Person of the Queen of Hungary at the Ceremony of her Inauguration, which is to be performed in a short Time after his Highness's Arrival, who will, as it is likewise affirmed, be then appointed Governor of the Austrian Netherlands. People here are in daily Expectation of the News of an Action in Moravia. The Recruiting goes on here very successfully.

Whitehall, March 6.

By Letters from Rear Admiral Haddock, dated at Port Mahon the 1st of February, there is Advice of Commodore Lestock with the Squadron of his Majesty's Ships under his Command being arrived there; and that Mr. Haddock having received that Reinforcement, was preparing with all possible Diligence to put again to Sea.

Whitehall, March 1st, 1741-2.

Whereas a most barbarous Murder, was committed on Saturday the 9th Day of January last past, upon the Bodies of Edward Saunders, an Inhabitant of Simpson, in the County of Buckingham, and an Out Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital, aged Seventy eight Years, and of George Foster, an Infant of Nine Years old, in a Booth or Hutt erected by the said Edward Saunders, contiguous to the High Road that leads from London to West-Chester, opposite to a Wood, called Rickley Wood, in the Parish of Bletchly, in the County aforesaid; His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, and also a Reward of 1210

of Fifty Pounds to such Person or Persons making such Discovery (except the Murderer as aforesaid) payable upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offendens.

CARTERET.

Navy Office, the 10th of February, 1741-2.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy having received Information, That several wicked and evil disposed Persons had forged Wills and Letters of Attorney of Sailors dying on Board his Majesty's Ships of War, and obtained Probates of such Wills, and by that Means received the Wages due to such Seamen, caused strict Enquiry to be made into the Affair, and found that the Will of one Peter Perry a Sailor, who died on Board his Majesty's Ship the Lancaster, was forged by Dominick Fitzgerald and James Lee, as follows, the Will was a common printed Sailor's Will, and was filled up and signed by Fitzgerald by the Name of Perry, and Lee witnessed the same by the Name of James Welch: For this Offence Fitzgerald and Lee were indicted at the Sessions held at the Old Baily, upon Monday the 7th Day of December last, upon a Statute made in the Second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, and revived and made perpetual in the Ninth Year of his said Majesty's Reign; whereby it is Enacted, "That if any Person "shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or "procure to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or "willingly act or assist in the false making, forging, "or counterfeiting any Deed, Will, Testament, Bond, "Writing-Obligatory, Bill of Exchange, promissory "Note for Payment of Money, Indorsement or Assign-"ment of any Bill of Exchange, or promissory Note "for Payment of Money, or any Acquittance or Receipt, "either for Money or Goods, with Intention to defraud "any Person whatsoever; or shall utter or publish as "true, any false, forged or counterfeited Deed, Will, "Testament, Bond, Writing-Obligatory, Bill of Ex-"change, promissary Note for Payment of Money, In-"dorsement or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange, or "promissary Note for Payment of Money, Acquittance "or Receipt, either for Money or Goods, with Intention "to defraud any Person, knowing the same to be false, "forged, or counterfeited, then every such Person being "thereof lawfully convicted according to the due Course "of Law, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and suf-"fer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy." Upon which Indictment the said Dominick Fitzgerald and James Lee were both convicted, and have been since executed for the said Offence. The said Commissioners publish this to inform all Persons whatsoever, that by the said Statute, any Person that falsely makes, forges, or counterfeits, or causes or procures to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or willingly acts or assists in the false making, forging, or counterfeiting the Will, Letter of Attorney, or Bill of Sale of any Seaman or Seamen, or any Ticket for Seamen's Wages, or that utters or publishes as true, any false, forged, or counterfeited Will, Letter of Attorney, Bill of Sale, or Ticket of any Seaman or Seamen, is guilty of Felony; and being convicted thereof, will suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy: And for the discovering of Persons guilty of these Offences, the said Commissioners do hereby promise to reward any Person or Persons that shall make such Discovery, upon the Conviction of any Person or Persons guilty thereof.
